As Data Controller of personal data, in accordance with EU Regulation 2016/679 "European Regulation" and the national regulations applicable to this sector we inform you that the processing of your personal data is carried out in the company structure and its field offices in full respect of the aforementioned norms, guaranteeing respect for fundamental freedom rules and the dignity of the interested party, in particular protecting privacy and data protection. We point out that the disclosure relates to personal data provided by the data subject or its designates and any data requested in the future compatible with the purposes indicated below, obtained directly from them or through systems where the data subject can release his information for be subsequently contacted by potential customers.

Pursuant to art. 13 and 14 of the Rules, we provide the following information:

- Method of treatment

The processing of data can be carried out in paper form and / or through the use of computer systems and related electronic equipment (even remote with appropriate systems of protection and security), by persons specifically appointed and instructed on security and data processing, for the below listed purposes. Further processing for different purposes will be the subject of specific information with relative consent if due in relation to the mandatory rules.

- Purposes pursued

- A Administrative, accounting and fiscal management of the company (quotations, work organization, etc.)
- B Operational management and internal / external logistics
- B (delivery and / or collection of goods or products / services, communications concerning the status of work)
- C Supplying of services, materials, processing, specialised provision
- C (non-exhaustive list: consulting, supply of materials, interventions on buildings, facilities, professional services, technical, logistics, training, etc.)
- D Management of any dispute between the parties
- D (complaints, breaches of contract between the parties, etc.)
- E Archiving of technical / administrative documentation
- E (in relation to legal obligations, keeping of fiscal and contractual documents, contractual and warranty communications)

- Communication of personal data

The data at our disposal will be processed by internal subjects (persons in charge and managers) in relation to the functions held within the organization in order to pursue the above listed purposes and on the basis of the relationships between the parties. Due to specific activities related to particular professional and / or technical figures, the organization also resorts to subjects external to the structure, involving data processing. These persons are appointed as external managers of the treatment and therefore subject to the obligations that the current legislation imposed.

The categories of recipients are the following:

INTERNAL

Employees of the company or collaborators under different contractual form directly controlled by the Controller

EXTERNAL

Tax consultancy firms (accountants, tax consultants, etc.)

Technical consultancy firms (job security, etc.)

The communication to parties outside the organization will be carried out within the limits of the strict necessity to follow up specific contractual obligations between the parties or or in accordance with legal obligations (eg accounting and tax company, regulations concerning the safety at work).

It means that not all the above mentioned subjects will be able to process the data, but only the internal or external figures in charge of performing a particular mandatory treatment.

- Transfer of data to a third country or to international organizations

For the activities involving the processing of personal data, the data controller does not transfer data to a third country or to international organizations.

- Obligation (or non) of the data sharing

The processing of personal data is only admissible upon their sharing by the interested party. This transfer may be optional or compulsory pursuant to the legislative regulations applicable in relation to the objectives pursued. Due to the principle of the "necessity" of the data (thus excluding the request for data not strictly necessary), the interested party is informed that for the purposes reported his refusal to share the data will in fact make it impossible to carry out the planned treatments, preventing the services provided by the relationship between the parties or the fulfillment of particular legal obligations.

- Data retention

The storage of the collected data, without prejudice to the exercise of the rights of the interested party as indicated below, is extended to the strict time necessary to complete the order, task or service requested, as well as any data storage provided for guarantees, by state or European regulations (eg storage of tax documents). The information, even of a sensitive nature that is no longer necessary or to be retained by virtue of regulations or for the protection of the data subject, will be destroyed (or become unusable) or returned if there are original documents, without keeping copies. Further information on the storage periods in relation to the various cases may be requested from the data controller and his contact persons through the communication channels indicated in this statement.

- Profiling and automated processes

The processing of personal data is managed without the intervention of automated systems or processes, which could cause decisions impacting on data processing and on the legitimate interests of the data subject, therefore the profiling of the data subject is not foreseen.

- Data controller
